

	Lifting performance Proudly sponsored by  association of consulting and engineering	Social procurement Proudly sponsored by  association of consulting and engineering	Digital innovations Proudly sponsored by 	People development and culture Proudly sponsored by 	Infrastructure design, delivery and management Proudly sponsored by 	Climate adaption and sustainability Proudly sponsored by
Location	Great Room I	Gallery 4	Crystal 2	Gallery 3	Crystal 1	Great Room II
1330	101 – 102 Panel: Risk and liability – A diverse perspective.	201 A blueprint for creating social value through infrastructure investments. Juliet Woodward & Rochelle Hardy, Jacobs	301 Preparing for technological change in the infrastructure sector. Matt Ensor, Beca	401 Where are your Jedi Masters? Sarah Hexamer, Otago Polytech & Roger Oakley, Stantec	501 One Network Framework – Integrating Business Process. Andrew McKillop, REG	601 Out with the old and in with the new. Alice Grace, Morrison Low & Rachel Trinder Kāinga Ora
1400		202 An engineer, a robot and a philosopher walk into a bar... Kat Salm, Harrison Grierson	302 How does your deployment stack up? Humans: Th ultimate ecosystem engineers. Keri Niven, Aurecon	402 The diversity balancing act. David Hogg, Stantec	502 Managing risky assets. Rudolph Kotze, Holmes Consulting	602 Auckland's road to electric public transport – why so bumpy? Anna Percy, Auckland Transport
1430	103 Concrete's journey to decarbonise. Rob Gaimster, Concrete NZ	203 Practical Social Procurement – A Māori construction perspective on improving supplier diversity, engaging with Iwi and supporting our Pasifika whānau. Warner Cowin, Height Project Management	303 Engineers – an endangered species? Matt Bishop, BVT	403 The Whānau Effect– "How we set up our whānau for success". Sarah Comber, Fulton Hogan	503 Resilient and sustainable water infrastructure solutions to anticipate the unforeseeable. Claudia Helberg Tauranga City Council & Daniel Johnson & Jivir Vijakesparan, WSP	603 Balancing investment decisions to prepare for a changing climate. Cushla Loomb, Beca
1500	104 People and Culture, building a thriving workforce–The Construction Sector Accord – lifting performance through partnerships. Judy Zhang, MBIE	204 Progressive Procurement – a pathway to enabling sustainable outcomes for our communities in Hawke's Bay. Darren de Klerk, Central Hawke's Bay District Council & Angela Hirst, Hastings District Council	304 New Zealand's geohazard management: a shaky start to a seismic shift? John Kreft, WSP	404 Drilling into root causes and building a thriving workforce. Wiremu Matthews and Steve Hersey, Kanuka Wellbeing and Leadership	504 How do you reduce CO2 when renewing watermain? Leigh John, Aquatech Solutions	604A – 10 mins. Applying a cost-effective climate lens to projects and programmes. Brigitte Hicks, WSP  604B – 10 mins. Southwest gateway: a future focused strategy for multi-modal transport improvements to support decarbonising transport in south Auckland. Mark Laing, Aurecon, Ida Dowling, Commute Transportation & Renata Smit, Auckland Transport