

CONCURRENT SESSION TWO
THURSDAY 3 FEBRUARY

	Digital Innovations Proudly sponsored by 	People development and culture Proudly sponsored by New Zealand  IPWEA <small>INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC WORKS ENGINEERING AUSTRALASIA</small>	Infrastructure design, delivery and management Proudly sponsored by  BECA	Climate adaption and sustainability Proudly sponsored by  VEOLIA
Location	Crystal 2	Gallery 3	Crystal 1	Gallery 4
1555	305 Application of Digital Engineering (DE) in the water sector. Farzam Farzadi, Beca Ltd, Sven Harlos, Watercare Services Ltd & Matt Stanford, Fletcher Construction Company Ltd	405 People and culture – building a thriving workforce. Gillian Blythe, Water New Zealand	505 Pipe dream or reality: smart sewers Robert White, GHD	605 Compact cities: infrastructure benefits, carbon benefits and financial benefits? James Hughes, Tonkin + Taylor
1625	306 Smart water metering – a strategic investment? Hugh Blake-Manson, Waugh Infrastructure Management	406 The future of mahi – an inclusive and diverse workforce? Kristina Hermens & Priyani de Silva-Currie, Beca	506 Te Hono – New Plymouth Airport Terminal–Delivery of a truly collaborative design solution. Matthew Low, Beca	606 Innovating for a more sustainable future. Chloe Smith, Fulton Hogan
1655	307 Could R2-D2 inspect and fix our infrastructure? Ankit Chakraborty, HEB Construction & Mircel van der Walt, Waka Kotahi	407 Is your procurement and contract strategy “Future-Fit” to enable collaborative and trusting relationships to flourish? Or is it merely a tweak of what you did last time? Andrew Barron, New Plymouth District Council	507 Post Occupancy Evaluation–Getting the Future-Fit right. Rhonda Johnson & Peter Rickard-Green, Jacobs	607 Managing future uncertainties using the adaptive pathways planning approach—a water Industry case study. Vijesh Chandra, GHD